
PROFILE

Nancy Muchiri

Nancy Muchiri is the Communications & Partnerships Manager at the African Agricultural Technology Foundation. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree and a Mass Communications postgraduate diploma from the University of Nairobi. Before joining AATF, Nancy worked with the SOS Children's Villages, an international child welfare organisation where she established and headed the fundraising and communications department for three years. Prior to that, she worked with the East African Portland Cement Company Ltd as head of the public relations section for eleven years, providing corporate and product communications leadership. Nancy is responsible for managing the AATF's public and partnership relations.